BREED THEATER.
"Brothers in Arms" Super Patriotic Moving Picture.

Appropos of the day, the Breed theater will show one of the greatest military motion pictures ever seen in this city. This wonderful picture carries a virile, soul-grIPPING story, tense in action, starting in situations and climaxes of majestic magnitude.

Too much praise cannot be put upon the beautiful dramatic biograph picture, "The Keweenaw," a powerful story, proving that listeners hear no good of themselves. A picture of time-interest in the story of the Keweenaw in the Jungles, which will be most acceptable at this time, while the rest of the dramatic pictures are as follows:

"Between Love and Honor," Four Turn, Marquis, the excellent comedy film being called "Bridges on a Strike," The Suicide Club and others.

The patrons of this week will be delighted with the beautiful and difficult Italian aria, "O, Light Divine," by Madame Morelli, which is another of the class of which she has made such a success.

Madame Morelli, which is another of the class of which she has made such a success. Miss Marion Bradley will sing the catchy illustrated song, "Ball or Boy," and Mr. Delaney will feature the stirring military march song, "The Flag That's Yours and Mine."

Mephisto and the Maid, Feature Motion Picture.

A delightful photographic portrayal of the well known story of Faust, is being shown at the Breed theater this week, under the title of "Mephisto and the Maid," and the entire great transformation scenes, the entire action taking place on the most picturesque grounds.

The powerful story of the "Mephisto and the Maid," which is another of the class of which she has made such a success. Miss Marion Bradley will sing the catchy illustrated song, "Ball or Boy," and Mr. Delaney will feature the stirring military march song, "The Flag That's Yours and Mine."
